THE MURDER OF MR. HIRTH

Additional Arrests Made and New Clues Found.

Postponement of the Inquest-Babe Red ford's Bloody Comforter - The Post-Mortem Examination - A Dollar Bill Which is Supposed to be a Clue to the Murderers -Pinn's Statement.

Wednesday Night's Tragedy, The murder of Mr. George P. Hirth, on street Wednesday night, caused considerable excitement yesterday, and the pollee were very serive in their endeavors to ferret out the mystery surrounding the tragedy, and to find conclusive evidence against the men under arrest.

A SUPPOSED CLUE. Yesterlay morning a colored boy named Minor found a woolen neck comforter spotted with blood about 150, feet from the spot where the body was found. He took it to the Second precinct station, where it was identified by a young white man named Lane as the scarf worn by Babe Bedford, who was one scarf worn by Rabe Bedford, who was one of the men arrested Wednesday night, as recounted in The National Republican of yesterday morning. Officer MeDonald, of the Sixth predict, learning these facts and that a colored man named Sandy Pin, working in a store on P street, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets, had stated to his employer that Babe Bedford did not have a hand in the murder, and that B.d. of have a hand in the murder, and that B-dford was with him that night, proceeded thither and took Pin into custody. Pin was taken to the Sixth precinct station, where he was locked up, but was subsequently turned over to the police of the Second precinct, in which the murder was committed.

WAITING FOR THE INQUEST, It having been aunounced that the inquest would take place at 1 o'clock yesterday at the Fourth precinct station-house, the sidewalk in front of that structure was througed with people at that hour. About 1:30 o'clock it was made known that the coroner would no be in attendance until 2 o'clock.

ANOTHER ARREST. While the crowd was awaiting the arrival of the coroner, Detective Voss arrived in a car-riage, having in custody Edward Queenan, one of the suspected murderers, whom the officers arrested on Samson street. Shortly afterward Major Brock and Captain Vernon arrived, and were soon followed by Detective McDevitt and Acton and Sergeant Saffell doenan was arrested about a year ago in Mi ilirth's store on the charge of barceny, and at the time accused Mr. Hirth of being the insti-gator of his arrest, and swore vengeanes

At 2 o'clock sharp Coroner Patterson and Dr. Hartigan arrived. The coroner called the roll of jurors, and all answering to their names they were invited into Licatemant Gny's com, where a short private consultation was held. In a few moments the coroner appeared in the effice of the station and informed the reporters present that it had been decided to postpone the inquest until Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Queenen was then placed in the carriage and, accompanied by Detectives McDevitt, Voss and Acton and Sergrant Saffell, driven to Police headquarters, when the crowd gradually dispersed.

Yesterday morning Dr. Hartigan, assisted by Dr. Ramsey, held

A POST-MORTEM EXAMINATION and found three cut wounds of the head, one just above and behind the right ear, an inch and a half long, another an inch lower and two inches further back, of the same description. A third transverse wound was found at the back of the head, made, evidently, with the same instrument. There was also a bruise over the left side of the forehead and an ever the left side of the forehead and an ever the left side of the forehead and an ever the left side of the forehead and an ever the left side of the forehead and an ever the left side of the forehead and an ever the left side of the forehead and an ever the left side of the forehead and an ever the left side of the forehead and an ever the left side of the forehead and an ever the left side of the forehead and an ever the left side of the forehead and an ever the left side of the forehead and an ever the left side of the forehead and an ever the left side of the forehead and an ever the left side of the forehead and an ever the left side of the same description. over the left side of the forehead and an ex-tensive one in front of and around the left car, which might have been made by a kick. The surface of the brain was covered with blood, and an extensive fracture was found on the back and right side of the skull, having their origin under the seat of external injury and radiating extensively in every direction. Dr. Hartigan, during his examination, found eighty-five conts in the pockets of the murdered nan's clothing, which had escaped the greed of the murderers.

several squares from the scene of the murder and back. He was also given custody of and fundered in payment a dollar bill, upon which there was blood. The barber being unable to change the bill, went to a restaurant, accompanied by the man, and succeeded in getting the money changed. This man, it is believed, had a hand in the murder

The following was the story told by Pinn to Licutement Johnson during an interview yesterday: The George Smith referred to is sup-posed to be the man who went into the barber shop and tendered a bloody dollar bill in payment for a shave. Sandy Pion said that he saw Babs about 6:45 o'clock; was with him until 9 o'clock. Babs then left him and came back again in about half an hour, and told him that Phil Hirth was dead; that some one had jumped on him and killed him. He then went directly to Mr. Siberly and told him about the murder, and he, Babe and Mr. Siberly went down he, Bahe and Mr. Siberly went down to the drug store, where the man was dead; they stayed there as long as they wanted to; then he and Babe started away from the drug store together; Babe left him and Mr. Siberly and went away with some girls; Mr. Siberly agetting tired, and "to come on; let's go," and they went; Mr. Siberly left him at Eighteenth and T streets; he stopped where Babe was, and he and Babe went home, each to his own house; they lived about five doors to his own house; they inved about five doors aparl; he knew a fellow named George Smith; had kdown him for years; he lived on Johnson avenue between Fourteenth and Fifteentl nd R and Satreets; saw him that morning and Wednesday morning; was sure he had his "aiders" and noustache on both mornings.
Lane, who found the comforter, said that he was willing to swear at any time that the comforter belongs to Babe Bedford. He had often seen the comforter on Bedford, who used to erack it is his face at the market. The excitement throughout the city over the murder yesterday was very great, and there were repeated threats of lynching Babs Bolford, who is believed to be one of the

A Runaway Wite no Longer. Justice James, holding the Equity court, yesterday granted the first divorce decreed by him since he came upon the Supreme bench of this District. It was in the case of Joseph O. Manson from his wife, Florence Manson. The parties to this suit were married at Savannah. Ga., on July 14, 1872, by Rev. J. S. K. Axson, pastor of the Independent Presbytorian church of that place, the wife's maiden name being Florence Webb, and her residence at Knoxrile, Tenn. The parties came to this Dis-trict to reside in March, 1875. She remained here, living with him, until March, 1876, when ahe visited Knexville and remained until September, 1876. AMUSEMENTS. Important Convention to be Held in Washington Next May.

There has been since 1847, at which time the National Compact was formed, a difference of opinion existing among the colored Masons of the United States greatly affecting the good of the Craft, growing out of the formation of the National Grand Lodge. The differences became so widespread that at one time nearly every State in the Union claimed the existing and lodges—one working under the jurisdiction of the National Compact, the other refusing, as un-Masonic, to acknowledge any higher power than a State service of which the plot of this opera is founded find a realistic expression in the majestic movements of the lour set for the meeting being called to order, discoursed several airs. The resolution adopted at the last meeting authorizing the committee on hall to secure Lin-coln Hall at as early a day as po-sible was re-considered, and the matter was loft discretion ary with the committee, who were requested to report to the committees on printing and speeches and resolutions to-day. Messrs, J. A. McDevitt, A. Small, J. Fullerton, D. A. Bro nan, James Lackey, — Power and Dennis Connell were appointed a committee on fluance.

On motion of Mr. McDevitt, a committee of three was appointed to wait upon the Secretary of the Navy and try to secure the Marine Band for the occasion, as follows: Mr. McDevitt, Colonel Burke and General J. R. O'Beirne. Messrs. Bushnell, John A. Bingham and Col-onel Quinn were added to the committee. The meeting was then adjourned until Monday night at 7:30 o'clock. $5 and up for Pants, $20 and up for Overcoats $2.50 and up for making and trimming Pants. J. A. Greisbauer, $35 Ninth street.

THE TRUE STATE

WOOLEN MARKET

With the single exception of iron, the rise in prices of wool has been greater than in any other product. The fabrics that are now be ng consumed do not show any advance it price, as they were made out of last year's reducts of weel. The advance in Low and Medium Wools has been from 40 to 70 pe cent. In Delaine and Fieere Wools nearly 100 per cent. That these prices are not spec lative can be best inferred from the fact hat wool-growers have not for seven years past made a dollar on their wool crop, and in many instances failed to shear their sheep, as the prices realized DID NOT PAY FOR SHEARING. The past year's grop will be used in the manufacture of goods this year, and as such houses as FAULKNER, PAGE & Co POMEROY & PEMURER and others of the largest ommission houses in the world have bought at an average advance of 70 per cent, for the se of their mills, and not for the purposes o culation, it is certain BEYOND THE POS SIBILITY OF A DOUBT, that all grades o woolen fabrics will be at least TWENTY-FIVI

PER CENT. HIGHER NEXT SEASON. In Lineus and Cottons that are used in th manufacture of garments the advance averages 25 per cent.

The great demand for Ready-Made Cloti

ing, owing to the superior manner in which the better grades are now being made, has caused an advance in the price of labor of ully 20 per cent. We have now on hand fully FORTY THOU

SAND DOLLARS' WORTH MORE GOODS THAN WE HAVE EITHER THE DESIRE OR THE ROOM TO CARRY, and in order to lispose of them we shall, prior to taking a inventory, offer the entire stock at a uniform reduction of FIFTEEN PER CENT. from last

This may appear unwise and inconsistent to many. We deem it bost, however, to give our patrons the benefit of low prices whenever we an, as the increased patronage we secure hereby amply repays any sacrifice we may

We advise the public to buy now for nex winter's use, WHETHER THEY BUY OF US OR NOT. We invite them to look over ou stock (as it is the largest), and our great reluction in price makes it desirable to do so
